

YOUTH JUSTICE PROJECT

Resources for Restorative Justice Strategies in Schools

- Teaching Tolerance - Anti-bias educational Teaching Strategies for Grades K-12 to aid in discussions around race, gender, class, and social equity.
- Restorative Posters - Website containing free restorative justice posters, a set of questions to guide conversations with students on restorative justice, a zine, and resources for teaching with restorative justice.
- Teaching Peacemaking Circles - Restorative Justice Curriculum for Elementary School Kids.
- CURYJ \(Communities United for Restorative Youth Justice\) - A model for youth-centered, community organizing using restorative and indigenous healing practices.
- Oakland Unified School District - Example of a school district implementing large-scale restorative justice programming and services.
- Restorative Justice for Oakland Youth - Information and resources on restorative justice practices for young people.
- “Restorative Discipline Makes Huge Impact in Texas Elementary and Middle Schools”
[News article, August 2016]
- Youth Organizing Institute - Organization based in NC focused on empowering LGBTQ youth and ending the school-to-prison pipeline; two-week summer Freedom School program covers restorative justice and social equity.
- SpiritHouse - SpiritHouse houses the Harm Free Zone Project, which is based in Durham, North Carolina.
- SaferSanerSchools - Model for transforming a school climate using transformative justice practices.